ADMINISTRATION

- Shasta College: Locker rooms renovations, aerobic aerobics, and Trio programs.
- City of Redding: schedule is set and requesting a meeting date(s) for the swim meet organization.
- NVAL's: New President, Meet sheet, and working on request from teams. Meet format changed.
- Staffing schedules and balancing out swim meets and practices. Vacation, Jury duty, swim meets.
- Elsmore Swim Shop is our new Team Store vendor. I believe this was a very good move. They will also be attending NVAL's.
- NVAL Meet logo has been approved by Team Store and it will be on the shirts and Sierra Nevada Swimming will incorporate the design in the bag tags for the swimmers, officials, and coaches.
- Parent meeting, May 8th. I will email you this list of people that have declared where they would like to volunteer.
- We didn't have Pre-Season Summer Ducks this year.
- Purchased eight Backstroke ledges for our meets.
- Advertising – Summer Ducks.

SWIMMERS/PARTICIPANTS

- The Awards Banquet was successful from the Coaches' perspective.
- 16 RAD swimmers went to Woodland.
- Audrey Bull and Kenny Rupp were selected as finalist Redding Record Searchlight Scholar Athletes. Only six male and females were chosen from the North State. First time Redding Swim Team had two athletes.
- One less SD/Mini Meets.

STAFF

- Rebecca Nelson will be assisting Bethany with the Rookies, Age Group 1, Hybrid, and Summer Ducks this Summer.
- We will be adding Chip Mark, Audrey Bull, and Kenny Rupp to help our Summer Ducks this summer.
- Currently we have 28 registered and paid Summer Ducks. Eight more in registration (unpaid).
